

This one-day symposium will bring together people with an interest in cancer screening, including early diagnosis and treatment, with the aim of sharing experiences, best practice and identifying key areas for research.

Symposium on Cancer Screening in Underdeveloped Countries

Weill Cornell Medicine: Weill Greenberg Center 2nd Floor
1305 York Avenue, New York, NY 10065
June 3rd, 2016

8:30AM – 9AM: Coffee Service

9:00AM – 9:15AM: Welcome

Dr. Madelon Finkel. Professor of Healthcare Policy & Research and Director Office of Global Health Education, Weill Cornell Medicine

9:15AM – 9:35AM: Cervical Cancer Screening in Rural India

Presenter: Dr. Biswajit Paul. Associate Professor Christian Medical College Vellore, Tamil Nadu.

9:35AM – 9:55AM: Cervical Cancer Screening in South Africa

Presenter: Dr David Adler. Director Emergency Medicine Research, Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine, Associate Professor of Public Health, University of Rochester

9:55AM – 10:15AM: A Short History of the Human Papillomavirus Vaccine

Presenter: Dr William Bonnez. Professor of Medicine (Emeritus) University of Rochester

10:15AM – 10:35AM: HPV Screening for Cervical Cancer

Presenter: Dr Shobha Krishnan. Founder and President, Global Initiative Against HPV and Cervical Cancer

10:35AM -11:00AM: Coffee Break

11:00AM – 11:20AM: Screening for Oral Cancer

Presenter: Dr A. Ross Kerr. Clinical Professor, Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology, Radiology & Medicine New York University College of Dentistry

11:20AM – 12:15AM: Workshop Discussion Groups

12:15PM – 1:30PM: Luncheon

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Barry H. Smith. President/CEO The Rogosin Institute. Professor of Clinical Surgery, Weill Cornell Medicine. Director Dreyfus Health Foundation.

1:30PM – 2:15PM: Use of Mobile Technology

Presenters: Dr. Satchit Balsari. Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine. Chief, Weill Cornell Global Emergency Medicine Division, Weill Cornell Medicine. Faculty, Harvard FXB Center for Health and Human Rights and Jay Evans. Asia Regional Director, Medic Mobile

2:15PM – 2:35PM: Ethical Issues in Cancer Screening

Presenter: Dr. Inmaculada de Melo-Martin. Professor of Medical Ethics in Medicine. Professor of Medical Ethics in Reproductive Medicine. Professor of Healthcare Policy and Research, Weill Cornell Medicine

2:35PM – 3:00PM: Closing Remarks

Dr. David Weller. James Mackenzie Professor of General Practice Centre for Population Health Sciences. University of Edinburgh

3:00PM – 4:00PM: Networking Social Hour

Sponsored by:

Funding provided by the British Council